LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1968, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following to our friends and enemies, as the case may be:

I, Gerald Dorety, leave my morning coffee break to Pet Ratcliffe, my "finagling" ability to Walt Oliver, my Irish temper to Dave DeRocco, my Irish blarney to Robert Howard, and my ability to stay out of trouble to the Freshmen boys.

I, Terry Miller leave all the machines in school to Marcia Saxton, my ability to never be where I'm supposed to be and still get away with it to George Hazard, the library to Mr. DePhillips, my one-hour lunch breaks with Mrs. Cheney to anyone who can arrange it, all my out-of-town women to Glenn King, my good marks and smart remarks to my brother Bill, my shorthand class to Dave DeRocco, my love to Mrs. Pritchard, and finally I leave, all 13 years of it, to good old BCS.

I, Kathleen Bickford, leave my ability to get along with Coach to Sandy Windover, my ability to get along with EVERY ONE to Faith Bouck, my seat in English to Linda Baker, my extra food from the Cafeteria to Mr. Spicer who needs it as much as I did, and finally I leave to Mrs. Eleanor Pritchard a longer time to wait for Tom.

I, David Tilbe, leave my athletic ability to Ralph Holmes, my spot in the boy's room to whoever can get there first, my technical fouls to Coach, my ability to study to Dennis Small, and the Oppenheim spectators to Garre Orcutt.

I, Ellen DeRosia, leave my shorthand marks to Judy Shermeta, my black and blue marks to Dennis Small who likes to give them, my dependability to Eddie Burr, and to the Junior girls I leave all my favorite classes of gym.

I, Robert Piersma, leave my hidden sock of money to poor Mr. Payne, my wonderful disposition to Mrs. Voisey, my smile to Mrs. Allen, my curly hair to Jack Kenyon, and my wild shirts to Mr. Warmuth.

I, Richard Small, leave my golden toe and my ability to kick the ball at the refs in basketball to my brother Dennis, my Charger R/T to Coach Burghdurf and Mrs. Flanders, my ability to sneak out third helpings in the Cafeteria to my little sister Renée, and finally I leave Mrs. Cheney to next year's Senior boys.

I, Gloria Baker, leave my ability to "fake out" English to Linda Baker, my wonderful cartwheels to Sandy Windover, my messy locker to Faith Bouck, my excess weight to Ruth Melville, and my Homemaking class to Connie Gould.

I, Daniel Gilligan, leave my ability to understand women to Garre Orcutt, my jump shot in basketball to Fred Ryder, my love to the teachers, and one bummed cigarette to Pete Ratcliffe.

I, Susanne Burr, leave my habit of almost making it to classes and study halls on time to anyone who thinks he can get away with it, my cheerleading uniform to Pete Ratcliffe, all my free time to flirt with the guys to Marcia Saxton, my skill of getting into some kind of trouble no matter what I do to my brother Ed, my sister Marianne to sing in my place, and the piano to my brother Leo. To the teachers I leave a little quietness and last of all, I leave my ghost behind to haunt the halls with echoes of the past and memories of the Chorus and Band.

We, the Class of 1968, wish we could leave a world of peace to everyone. Since this is not possible at present, we do leave the hope of peace for the future.

The Class of 1968 leaves their years of happiness, work, and fun to those classes who follow us. Our "growing up" years will be remembered with fondness and pleasure.

Signed and Sealed,
THE TEN HOPEFULS

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten years have sped by, and we are all wiser and much more appreciative of the years we had at Bridgewater Central School. We are gathered at our Tenth Reunion and consider ourselves fortunate to be in attendance at this happy time. "Dame Fortune" has smiled on us all, especially the six male members of the class in that all the "68 Devils" are expected at sometime during the day.

Susanne Burr, Just as bubbly and gay as we remembered, flew in for the day. Miss Burr is currently starring in a Broadway musical in New York City. Outside her professional life, Sue is an unorganized but happy wife and mother.

Gloria Baker is visiting her home for a vacation. We barely recognize her since her appearance is now so streamlined. Glor is working in a nearby large city as a receptionist in an office, shares a plush apartment with some other young sophisticates, and leads a gay, carefree life. Says Glor--"I'm making up for lost time!"

Ellen DeRosia, as small and cute as ever, is employed part-time as secretary in the New Bridgewater Central School. Ellen earned her Mrs. degree shortly after graduation and is now busily engaged in the affairs of running a household and bringing up several little offspring.

Kathy Bickford has a Mrs. degree and devotes all her time to this vocation. Kath has several curly-topped angels at home to play with the puppies in the kennel which their father owns and operates. Some of the women were overheard complaining about the boredom of being a housewife, but Kathy just grins and then a serene look of happiness settles on her face. Kathy is perfectly happy and content with this life.

Robert Piersma quietly drove in with his-Rolls Royce, chatted sociably with everyone, and soon left. As always, he did not bother to tell anyone of his successful occupation (owns and operates a dog training school and kennel) or of his other achievements. Same Bob--good natured, smiling, slim and unassuming.

The snappily dressed man and gay flirt of the group is, of course, Dan Gilligan--still a bachelor and still looking for happiness. Dan is coaching basketball at a nearby university and lives life to the fullest--always searching but never quite catching that elusive state of happiness.

David Tilbe sauntered around, his brown eyes dancing! He just returned from a snow mobile dealers' convention where he was given an award for outstanding achievement in increasing his sales volume. Next year, his business should be doubled in volume. During the summer months and other spare time, David devotes his time to his family and his other business, selling motor boats.

Rick Small, so taken up with Chrysler products in his high school years, is a salesman for one of the Chrysler-made cars. Rick operates an insurance business as well (sell them and insure 'em at the same time!) After considerable teasing from the others, Rick admitted that one of the members of his "harem" finally snatched him; his home is really a harem now, what with a wife and five daughters!

The Irishman talking madly away with the girls (from age 16 to 60) was, as we suspected, Jerry Dorety. Jer is employed in one of the local concerns as a foreman, and owns considerable stock in the same concern. We suspect that his wife is responsible for much of his success, because he certainly is much subdued in actions from high school days.

The last member of the class--and late, as usual--to arrive was Terry Miller. Terry has to hurry home to finish checking history final exams so that he can start on that summer cruise to Europe. It seems that Terry is still interested in the out-of-town women!--and none have been able to catch him yet.

As the day came to a close, we discussed the fact that everyone seemed to be happy and contented, which made all the rest of us hopeful that our 20th Reunion would find the state of affairs of the Class of 1968 in the same condition.
